KŪ LIKE

STAND TOGETHER

Ikaika kākou ke kū like kākou.

We are stronger when we stand together.

In times of hardship, when our struggle is greatest and we feel unable to surmount life's impossible challenges alone, it is not because we failed, it is because the impossible was never meant to be overcome alone.

We find strength when we kū like, stand together. When we stand together, we find that our bodies become stronger, the fierceness of our spirits become greater, our will becomes indomitable, and the idea of impossible disappears.

Our community, incredible volunteers, and partners, who all make the impossible happen, will be united to stand together behind our athletes as they set to embark on the journey of a lifetime in the 2022 VinFast IRONMAN World Championship in Kailua-Kona, Hawai'i.

As you begin your journey, look around and remember that as much as you compete against the athlete at your side you are there to prove that together "anything is possible."

Ikaika kākou ke kū like kākou.

Ma ka wā pa`akikī, i ka wā e luma`i `ia ai ke kanaka ho`okahi e ka pu`u alaina kū ki`eki`e a hā`ule, he kumu ko ia hā`ule `ana; no ka mea, he mea ia e `auamo `ia e ka nui.

WELCOME

ALOHA,

On behalf of the people of the County of Hawai`i, it is my honor to welcome all athletes, sponsors, media, and spectators to the iconic VinFast IRONMAN World Championship, taking place for the first time as a two-day event on October 6 and 8, 2022, in Kailua-Kona, Hawai`i, after a three-year hiatus.

Triathletes from around the world dream of racing here on IRONMAN's main stage, where the legendary 140.6-mile course along the Kona-Kohala coast, through barren lava fields, provides for the ultimate test of body, mind, spirit, strength, grit, and heart, while calling upon athletes to find the spirit of aloha within themselves.

We continue to be delighted to host this outstanding event and extend a warm welcome to our visitors and invite you to take the time to enjoy our beautiful Island of Hawai`i and all that it has to offer. Your world-class athleticism serves as an inspiration to the people who call this place home as we strive for a healthier Hawai`i Island.

My sincere thanks to the thousands of local volunteers who donate their efforts to make the athletes and visitors feel welcome and ensure the seamless operation of this event. Our community will unite to "Kū Like" (stand together) in support of the over 5,000 incredible athletes embarking on the journey of a lifetime.

Best wishes for a safe, fun, and unforgettable experience to everyone involved in the 2022 VinFast IRONMAN World Championship.

Mitchell D. Roth, Mayor

ALOHA,

On behalf of our entire IRONMAN team, I would like to share our congratulations and welcome to the 2022 VinFast IRONMAN World Championship. Your hard work, dedication, and sacrifice have earned you a spot on the starting line for one of the greatest sporting events in the world. We are proud to have you as a member of our IRONMAN `Ohana and encourage you to savor your accomplishment and the experience that awaits you.

It has been nearly three years since the best in the world have raced in beautiful Kailua-Kona, Hawai`i and I am sure you are feeling the same excitement and eagerness we are to finally make your dreams of crossing the iconic finish line on Ali`i Drive a reality. After not being able to hold the IRONMAN World Championship in Kona since 2019, we are thrilled to bring a two-day race format for the first time in the event's 40-plus year history and are as motivated as ever to provide you with a race experience that tops all others and matches the incredible work and dedication that earned you your spot.

At the same time, we hope that you have begun to hear about the “Live Aloha” initiative. With the three-year absence, it is as important as ever that we also appreciate and respect the community, culture, and land in which we are all so thankful to get back to enjoy. Please be mindful of your fellow competitors and community members, and Live Aloha as good stewards of the land and its people that give so much to us.

The IRONMAN World Championship has etched out its unique legacy in sports history thanks to the symbiotic relationship with Hawai`i, our inspirational and aspirational athletes, like you, and the thousands of unforgettable moments created while racing to prove “ANYTHING IS POSSIBLE®.” As you stand on the shore of Kailua Bay ready to undertake this challenge, take a moment to reflect on your `ohana and the many fellow athletes, friends and family that have inspired you, and that you will inspire. In that moment, also remember that we find strength when we Kū like – stand together in Hawaiian -- and that you are not embarking on this goal alone. The community, volunteers, and our team onsite are there to support you.

We look forward to providing you a memorable experience from the start line to the finish line as you make your mark on IRONMAN history. Soak up the moment, channel your excitement as you wrap up your training, and get ready to embrace the challenges that await you on the famous IRONMAN World Championship course. On behalf of everyone at IRONMAN, I wish you a safe and successful race.

See you at the finish line!

Andrew Messick
The IRONMAN Group, President & Chief Executive Officer

ALOHA!

On behalf of all of us at IRONMAN, welcome to beautiful Kailua-Kona, Hawai`i and the 2022 VinFast IRONMAN® World Championship. After a three-year absence, we are thrilled to see this pinnacle event return to its home here on the Island of Hawai`i, and for the first time, take place over two days of racing. We congratulate you on your accomplishment of making it to the starting line here on Kailua Bay.

Since 1978, IRONMAN has embraced and celebrated its Hawaiian roots and the birthplace of the original IRONMAN competition. As you prepare for your journey, Kū Like -- stand together -- along with your fellow athletes as you set to embark on the journey of a lifetime. Recognize that you are in good company with some of the best athletes in the world and a community that has opened its home and hearts for more than 40 years.

This year more than ever we invite you to share the Hawaiian spirit and Live Aloha as you visit Hawai`i Island. Our gracious host communities are gifted with such beauty – in its people, its lands and culture – and we ask you to honor and reflect this, in your interactions on island. Take the Pono Pledge, your symbolic gesture to be a mindful visitor, and hold this in mind as you visit our local businesses, ride on the roads, swim in the ocean, and sightsee. Find out more about mindful visitation, here.

The 2022 VinFast IRONMAN World Championship is so much more than two days of racing. For many it’s an opportunity to take time, explore and appreciate Hawai`i. We encourage you to take advantage of all the island has to offer, experience the culture, and Live Aloha, for a truly transformative experience.

Our community, incredible crew of volunteers, partners and team stand ready to ensure you have the best experience possible.

I, along with the entire IRONMAN `Ohana, hope you walk away from this event with meaningful memories that last a lifetime. We look forward to seeing you on your race day as we Kū Like and show the world an incredible two days of racing and how dreams come true.

Live Aloha,

Diana Bertsch

LIVE ALOHA, TREAD LIGHTLY

As we return to Hawai`i, we want to welcome and encourage you to join us in not just saying Aloha, but Living Aloha. Throughout your visit to the Island, athletes, family, friends, and all visitors are encouraged to learn, observe, participate and understand the local culture through information, education, and service projects. We hope you will join us in some of these activities – sign up here via our website, and take the pono pledge as a symbolic gesture of support to Live Aloha. Please refer to the 2022 VinFast IRONMAN World Championship website for more details closer to race week.

Below are some simple guidelines to consider as you move around our host communities, and opposite a pledge you may take, to tread lightly and honor the earth. To learn more, visit the Kona Community Website at https://www.ironman.com/kona-community-live-aloha.

ALOHA

ALOHA SPIRIT

Embrace the lessons of peace, kindness, compassion and responsibility that come with being in the presence of and sharing the essence of life.

LOVE OF THE LAND

Mālama (care for) land and sea, and admire wildlife only from afar.

OBSERVE, LEARN AND UNDERSTAND

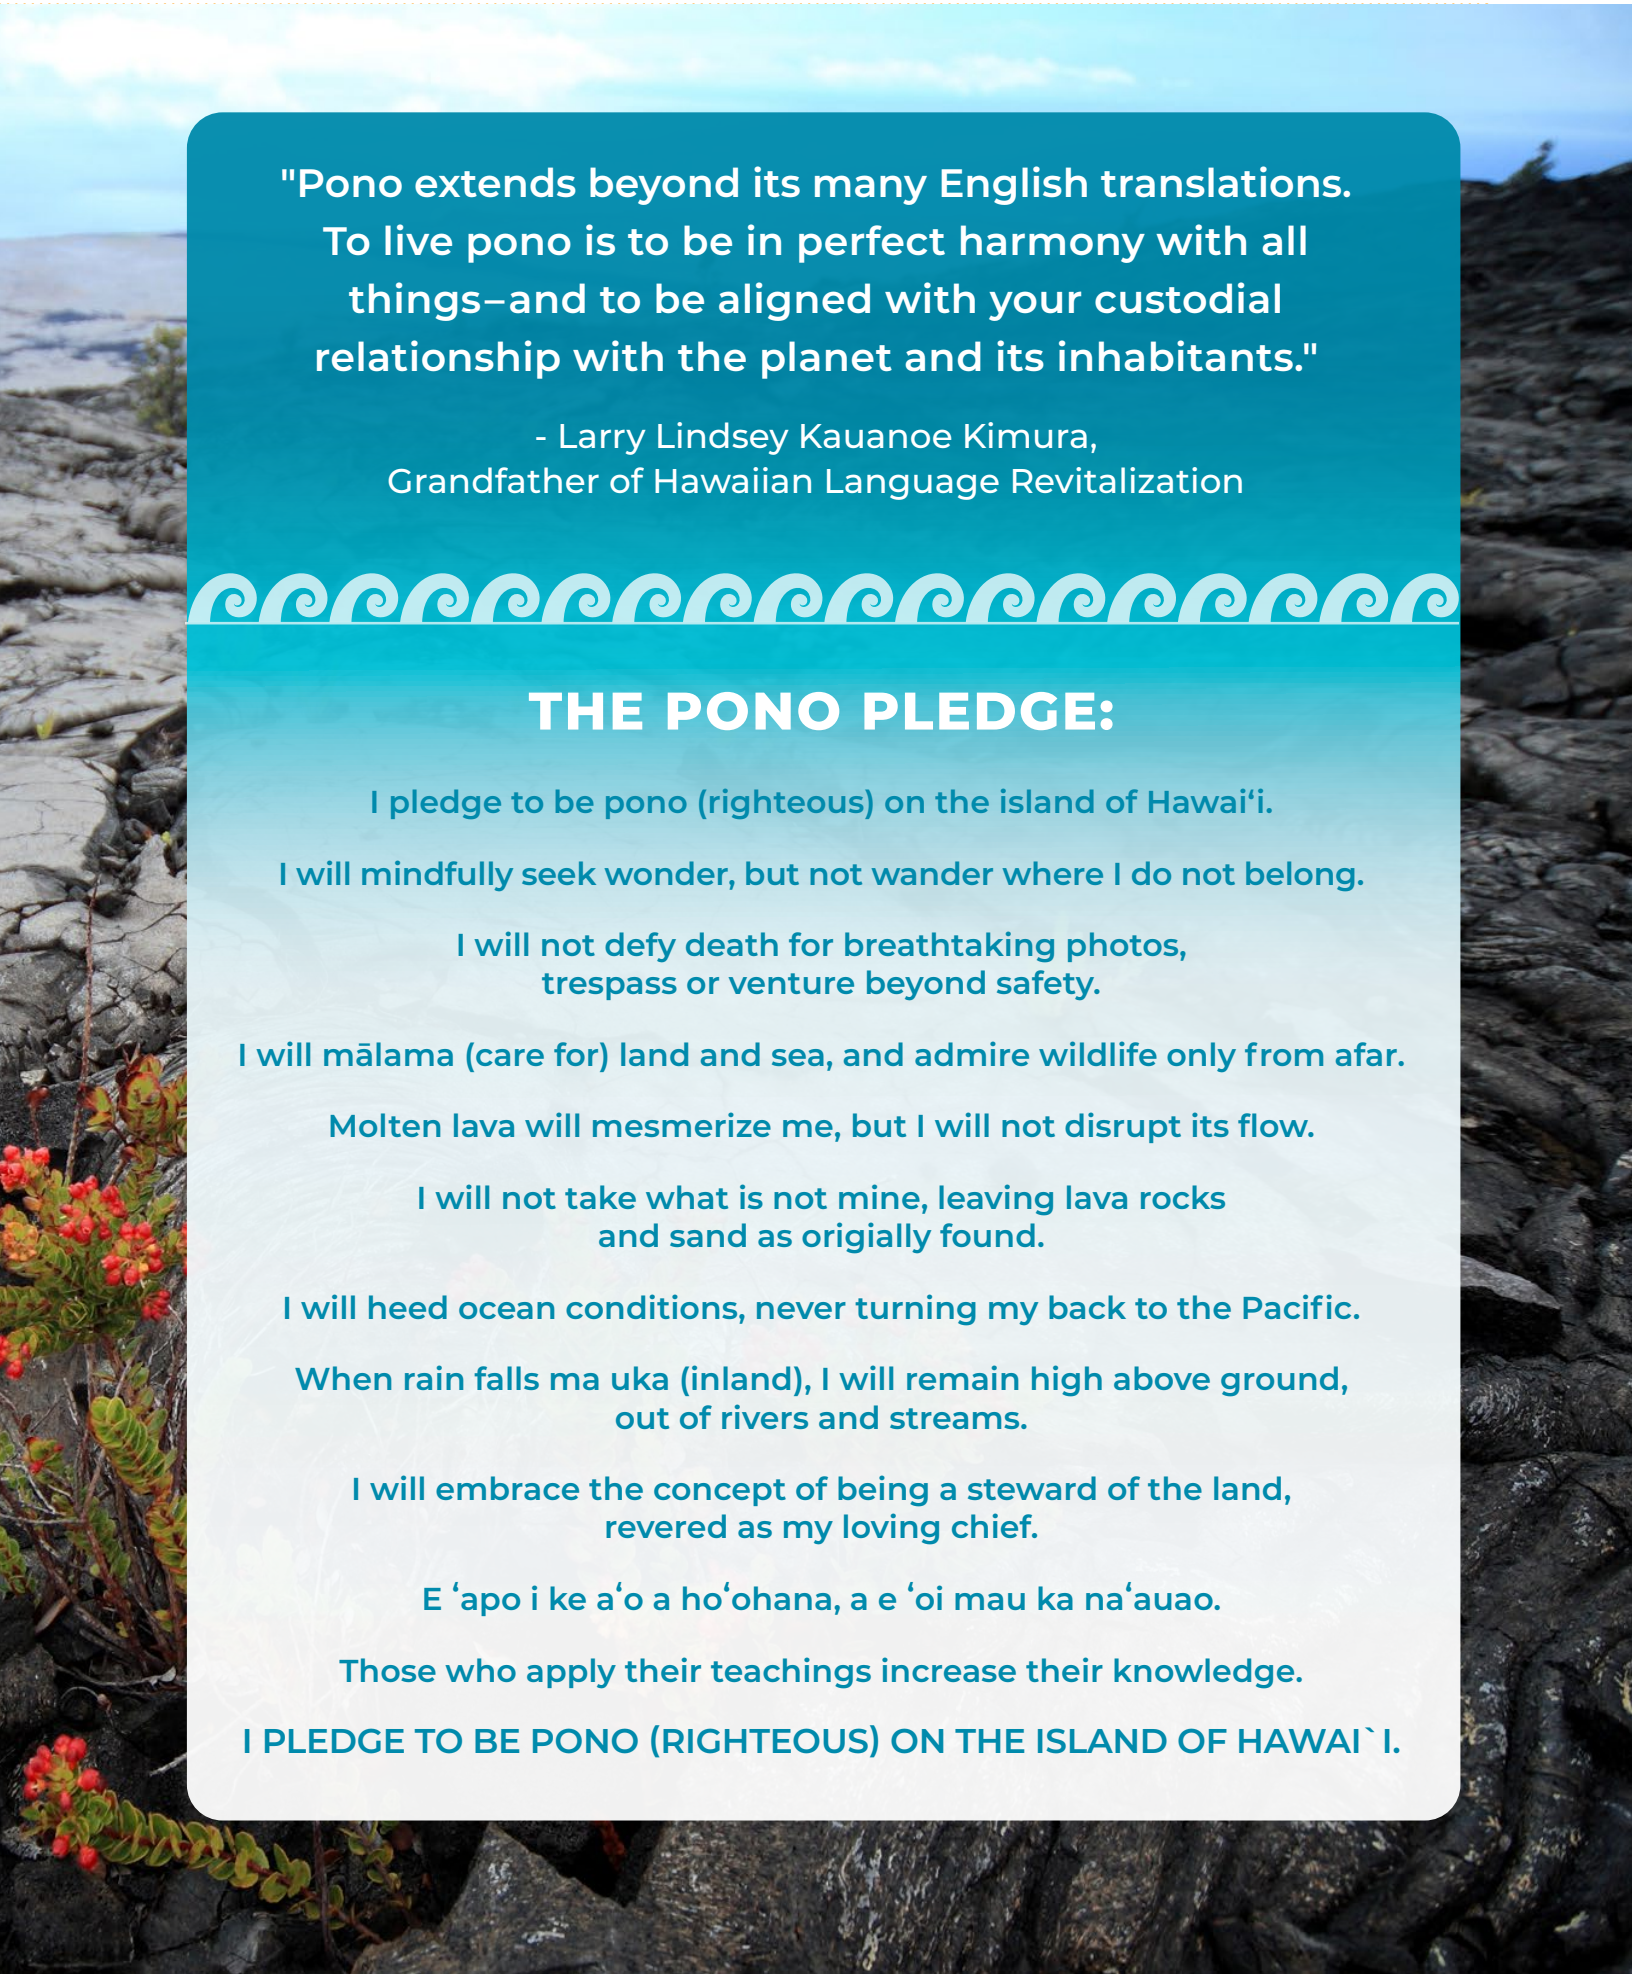

This land is one of rich history. take pause to learn of the peoples who have inhabited Hawai`i for centuries.

HONOR THE CULTURE

Take part in the shared culture of diverse influences commonly referred to simply as "local" and enjoy Native Hawaiian customs that are still practiced today.

ADMIRE AND RESPECT THE BEAUTY

Mindfully seek wonder, but not wander where one does not belong.

"Pono extends beyond its many English translations. To live pono is to be in perfect harmony with all things–and to be aligned with your custodial relationship with the planet and its inhabitants."

- Larry Lindsey Kauanoe Kimura,
Grandfather of Hawaiian Language Revitalization

THE PONO PLEDGE:

I pledge to be pono (righteous) on the island of Hawai‘i.

I will mindfully seek wonder, but not wander where I do not belong.

I will not defy death for breathtaking photos, trespass or venture beyond safety.

I will mālama (care for) land and sea, and admire wildlife only from afar.

Molten lava will mesmerize me, but I will not disrupt its flow.

I will not take what is not mine, leaving lava rocks and sand as origially found.

I will heed ocean conditions, never turning my back to the Pacific.

When rain falls ma uka (inland), I will remain high above ground, out of rivers and streams.

I will embrace the concept of being a steward of the land, revered as my loving chief.

E ‘apo i ke a‘o a ho‘ohana, a e ‘oi mau ka na‘auao.

Those who apply their teachings increase their knowledge.

I PLEDGE TO BE PONO (RIGHTEOUS) ON THE ISLAND OF HAWAI`I.

Don’t try this on race day*

* A bold statement from the brand that wants to sell you the product, sure. But getting used to nutrition is one thing many athletes don’t prioritize in training. Some even risk it all by trying new products on race day. So, use whatever you’ve trained with or get used to what you’re getting on-course. In this case the GEL 100 and GEL 100 CAF 100.

EYES ON THE PRIZE

BRUSH UP ON SOME OF THE TOP CONTENDERS IN BOTH THE WOMEN'S AND MEN'S PROFESSIONAL FIELDS.

BY: BRITTANY BEVIS

We've waited almost three years for the IRONMAN World Championship to return to its home on the Big Island of Hawai`i. From the sparkling waters of Kailua Bay to the volcanic lava fields that line the Queen K, there is no place that captures the essence of triathlon like Kona. The professional field for the 2022 VinFast IRONMAN World Championship is studded with seasoned veterans, Kona legends, dark horses, and hungry first-timers.

Not sure who to cheer for? Check out some of the men and women that will be in the mix this year in the first-ever, two-day edition of this storied event. (We know we missed some of your favorites. Tell us about our most glaring omissions by tagging your pro picks and adding @IRONMANTri #IMWC2022.)

THE WOMEN

PROFESSIONAL WOMEN'S RACE START: THURSDAY, OCTOBER 6, 6:25 AM HST

DANIELA RYF

COUNTRY: Switzerland
AGE: 34
: @danielaaryf
CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:
1st 2015, 2016, 2017, 2018, 2021 IRONMAN World Championship;
1st 2014, 2015, 2017, 2018, 2019 IRONMAN 70.3 World Championship

The Swiss Miss needs no introduction. The undisputed superstar of the IRONMAN World Championships has racked up a whopping 10 world championship wins throughout her career—five at the IRONMAN 70.3 World Championship and five at the IRONMAN World Championship. She also completed the elusive "world championship double" on three separate occasions, winning both IRONMAN and IRONMAN 70.3 world titles in the same year. Coming off a decisive win at the 2021 IRONMAN World Championship in St. George in May of this year, everyone's asking whether Ryf could be the first athlete to win two IRONMAN World Championships in the same calendar year.

"Success doesn't mean winning everything, but making the best of every situation."

LAURA PHILIPP

COUNTRY: Germany

AGE: 34

: @lauriphilipp : @laura_philipp_tri

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: 1st 2022 IRONMAN Hamburg; 1st 2022 IRONMAN 70.3 Kraichgau; 1st 2022 IRONMAN 70.3 Dubai; 1st 2021 IRONMAN Austria; 1st 2021 IRONMAN Finland; 1st 2018 IRONMAN Barcelona; 4th 2019 IRONMAN World Championship

▶ When looking at Laura Phillip's long list of accomplishments, it's hard to believe she just turned pro in 2015. In that short time, she's racked up 15 IRONMAN 70.3 victories and two world championship podiums (one at XTERRA Worlds). In her full-distance debut at IRONMAN Barcelona in 2018, she recorded the fastest time ever set by a rookie, a new course record, and the first sub-three marathon in Barcelona, winning by a half an hour margin in 8:34:57. That same year, she won every IRONMAN race she entered, adding five IRONMAN 70.3 titles to her resume. Thus far in 2022, she claimed two IRONMAN 70.3 wins (at Kraichgau and Dubai) and a win at IRONMAN Hamburg. (She had to drop out last minute from the IRONMAN World Championship in St. George, due to illness.) Considering that she came in 4th at her Kona debut in 2019, she's definitely a podium contender.

ANNE HAUG

COUNTRY: Germany

AGE: 39

: @haug_anne : @tri.anne.haug

DEGREE: Sports Science

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: 3rd 2021 IRONMAN World Championship (2022); 1st 2021 IRONMAN 70.3 Lanzarote; 1st 2019 IRONMAN World Championship; 1st 2019 IRONMAN Copenhagen; 3rd 2018 IRONMAN World Championship; 1st 2018 IRONMAN 70.3 California; 1st 2018 IRONMAN 70.3 Dubai

▶ Haug is the defending champion from the last time the IRONMAN World Championship was held in Kona—2019. That year, she delivered a blistering run of 2:51:07 to take the win alongside fellow German, Jan Frodeno. A dynamic runner with impeccable form, Haug is always a popular pick for the top spot at any race. Coming off a third-place finish at the 2021 IRONMAN World Championship in St. George, she's in fine form, and can likely expect another podium to add to her impressive Kona results.

FUN FACT: She's a World Champion in the sport of Indiaca, a form of the Brazilian game peteca popular in Europe.

CHELSEA SODARO

COUNTRY: USA

AGE: 33

: @chelseasodaro

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: 2nd 2022 IRONMAN Hamburg; 1st 2019 IRONMAN 70.3 Buenos Aires; 1st 2019 IRONMAN 70.3 Augusta; 1st 2019 IRONMAN 70.3 Santa Rosa; 1st 2018 IRONMAN 70.3 Indian Wells; 4th 2019 IRONMAN 70.3 World Championship

FUN FACT: SHE'S A CLASSICALLY TRAINED VOCALIST

▶ This former All-American runner did her first triathlon in 2017 and was hooked instantly. She finished on the podium of her first IRONMAN 70.3 race and quickly scored numerous wins at the distance over the next two years. Although she doesn't have much experience at the full distance, she just came in second at her debut at IRONMAN Hamburg this year. As a new mother to daughter, Skye, Sodaro will have plenty of inspiration to draw from heading into her first trip to Kona.

SKYE MOENCH

COUNTRY: USA

AGE: 34

: @skyemoench

▶ Moench is an American favorite who exploded onto the IRONMAN scene in 2019 with a win at the IRONMAN European Championship in Frankfurt. Moench took up triathlon as second career after working as an accountant, and despite considerable setbacks—including a crash that derailed her first attempt at the IRONMAN World Championship in 2019—she's seen incredible success. She's extremely balanced across all three disciplines and we can't wait to watch her Kona debut. Watch for her in the mix at the front of the bike.

THE MEN

PROFESSIONAL MEN'S RACE START: SATURDAY, OCTOBER 8, 6:25 AM HST

KRISTIAN BLUMMENFELT

COUNTRY: Norway

AGE: 28

: @kristianblu

SPORTING HERO: Alexander Dale Oen

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: 1st 2021 IRONMAN World Championship (2022); 1st 2021 IRONMAN Cozumel; 1st 2020 Olympics; 1st 2017, 2018, 2019 IRONMAN 70.3 Bahrain

One half of the always entertaining "Norwegian Legion," Blummenfelt is the current golden boy of triathlon with an Olympic goal medal, IRONMAN World Championship title, and distinction of being the first man to go sub-seven in a full distance triathlon. This well-rounded athlete is just as powerful on the bike as he is on the run, having clocked a speedy 2:35 marathon for a record-breaking win at the 2021 IRONMAN Cozumel in 7:21:11. Most recently, Blummenfelt was the winner of the 2021 IRONMAN World Championship in St. George with an equally impressive 2:38 marathon. Given the fact that his last two years have been so spectacular, he's undoubtedly a favorite for the Kona crown.

MOTTO:

"GO BIG OR GO HOME."

GUSTAV IDEN

COUNTRY: Norway
AGE: 26
: @Guiden96 : @gustav_iden
CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: 1st 2019 & 2021 IRONMAN 70.3 World Championship; 1st 2021 IRONMAN Florida; 8th 2020 Olympics; 1st 2016 IRONMAN 70.3 Norway ▶ Iden is the younger of the two Norwegian prodigies and also hails from Bergen. He surprised fans and other professionals alike by winning the 2019 IRONMAN 70.3 World Championship in Nice, France, and followed it up with a win at the 2021 IRONMAN 70.3 World Championship in St. George. Iden thrives in the hills; the unique challenge of this course may just be waiting to give us the best out of this young man. Iden has announced his intention to return to short-course racing after St. George, with an eye on the Paris Olympics.

LIONEL SANDERS

COUNTRY: Canada
AGE: 34
: @lsanderstri
ALTERNATE CAREER: YouTube Star
CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: 2nd 2021 IRONMAN World Championship (2022); 2nd 2017 IRONMAN World Championship; 1st 2018 & 2021 Ironman 70.3 St. George; 1st 2015, 2016 & 2017 IRONMAN Arizona

▶ This popular pro wants his first IRONMAN world title, which would be the first for Canada since the country took both the men's and women's titles in 2003. Sanders overcame addiction as a young man and discovered triathlon, where he's been dominant across both the half and full distances. A strong cyclist and one of only two pros to come within spitting distance of Blummenfelt's run in St. George earlier this year, Sanders is well poised to challenge the Norwegians at their own game. Born and raised in Windsor, Ontario, Sanders now spends much of his time living and training in Tucson, Arizona.

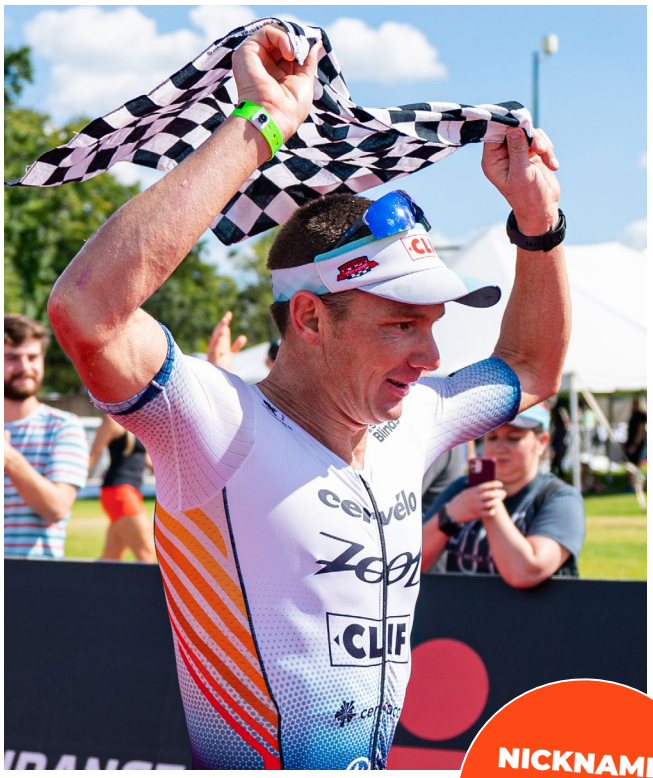

BRADEN CURRIE

COUNTRY: New Zealand
AGE: 36
: @bradencurrie
CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: 2nd 2022 IRONMAN Cairns; 3rd 2021 IRONMAN World Championship (2022); 1st 2021 IRONMAN New Zealand.

▶ Christchurch, New Zealand born Currie is a born multisport athlete. Arriving to the sport of triathlon via run-bike-kayak adventure challenges in his home country, Currie made a quick study of long-course triathlon and began to see consistent improvements. Top-10 finishes in Kona in 2018 and 2019 have paved the way for a run of long-course successes, and by looking at his recent results, this year shouldn't prove any different.

FIRST LOVE: ADVENTURE RACING

NICKNAME: "HOFFMEISTER GENERAL"

BEN HOFFMAN

COUNTRY: USA
AGE: 39
: @bhoffmanracing
DEGREE: Spanish Language
CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: 1st 2022 IRONMAN Texas; 1st 2019, 2017, 2016 IRONMAN South Africa; 1st 2013 IRONMAN Coeur D'Alene; 1st 2012 IRONMAN St. George; 1st 2012 IRONMAN Wisconsin; 1st 2010 IRONMAN Lake Placid

▶ The elder statesman of the group, Ben Hoffman has been consistently successful for more than a decade with multiple wins and podium finishes over a variety of distances beginning with his first IRONMAN win at Lake Placid in 2020 and most recently a win at IRONMAN Texas this year. His best results in Kona have included two 4th place finishes and a 2nd place behind Jan Frodeno in 2014. Hoffman knows what it takes to succeed, and also how quickly luck can turn on the Big Island. As a father to 3-year-old Josephine, he comes into this year's race content, confident, and with wisdom that should give him an edge over the competition.

THERE'S NO PLACE LIKE KONA

Hawaiian Tourism Authority (HTA) / Heather Goodman

As the triathlon worlds comes home to Ali`i Drive, here's a collection of things you might not realize how much you missed.

BY: BRITTANY BEVIS

Kona. You'd be hard pressed to find a place that has more meaning to the triathlon community. For most, Kona is a place of dreams, a lifelong goal to achieve, a journey to complete. For some, it's been a career-maker; for others, it's provided the setting for a triumphant comeback or bittersweet retirement.

Kona is synonymous with the aquamarine waters of Kailua Bay, the black lava fields that line the infamous Queen Ka`ahumanu, and the brutal heat of the Energy Lab. From the cannon start on Kailua Pier to the finish line celebration on Ali'i Drive that runs into the midnight hour, for a triathlete, there's no place like Kona.

Retired pro triathlete, Rachel Joyce, went to the IRONMAN World Championship in Kona, Hawai`i eight times during her career. In addition to claiming podium spots in 2013, 2014, and 2015, Joyce also found time to enjoy a few activities on the Big Island.

"Captain Cook Bay was always a staple," she says. "It's a little off the beaten track and a beautiful place to swim or kayak. You can also visit some of the coffee farms on your way back."

The Captain Cook Monument Trail is known for its stunning views that lead you down to Kealakekua Bay, the site of Captain James Cook's arrival on the island in 1778. The bay is

"Only in Kona... can you share your morning swim with a pod of dolphins."

- RACHEL JOYCE

designated a Marine Life Conservation District and considered one of the best snorkeling spots on the island. There's no road access, however—you have to either hike, kayak, or take a boat tour to reach its protected waters that are home to schools of tropical fish and spinner dolphins.

From there, travel south to the Puuhonua O Honaunau National Historical Park. Located at Honaunau Bay in south Kona, this 180-acre park is one of the most sacred locations on the island. Take a self-guided tour of the Great Wall, view wooden carvings of the gods that guard a sacred temple, and visit "Two Step Beach."

"Only in Kona... can you love and hate such a beautiful island so many times in the span of a race."

- JULIE DUNKLE

Triathlon coach Julie Dunkle will compete at Kona for the eighth time this year, so she's well accustomed to riding the Queen Ka'ahumanu Highway through unforgiving volcanic lava fields. To get an up-close look at a few of those active volcanoes, Dunkle recommends visiting Hawai`i Volcanoes National Park, home to Mauna Loa and Kilauea—the latter being one of most active volcanoes on earth. "Make the trip to see active lava flow into the ocean at night in Hawai`i Volcanoes National Park," Dunkle says.

The park has over 150 miles of hiking trails where you can see lava fields, volcanic craters, and steam vents. At the coastal end of Chain of Craters Road, take a 1.4-mile hike to the sacred Puuloa Petroglyphs to see more than 23,000 stone carvings. Other highlights include the Crater Rim Trail that traverses the edge of the Kilauea summit and Halema'uma'u Crater, which is said to be the home of Madame Pele, the volcano goddess.

If you're tempted to take home a lava rock as a souvenir, you'd better think twice. According to legend, Pele will bring bad luck to anyone who removes a rock from the island. Each year, thousands of rocks are mailed back to the park with letters of apology.

In Bob Babbitt's book, "25 Years of the Hawai`i IRONMAN," he tells the story of how Mark Allen struggled to win at Kona during the 1980s despite being one of the most accomplished triathletes of the time. Supposedly, Allen's stepmother had removed a rock from the island years before and returned it before that fateful race in 1989, when Allen defeated Dave Scott in the "Iron War."

Hawaiian Tourism Authority (HTA) / Tor Johnson

Just 30 miles south of the volcanoes is Punalu`u Black Sand Beach with volcanic sand that provides a favorite sunning spot for the Pacific green sea turtle, or "honu."

Dunkle also recommends visiting secluded Papakolea Green Sand Beach. The green sand gets its color from olivine crystals that are the result of the 1868 flow of Mauna Loa. "It's one of only four green sand beaches in the world," she says. "You can hire a local to drive you out there. It's an off road route so be prepared for a bit of a hike to the ocean, but it's well worth it."

"ONLY IN KONA... CAN YOU EXPERIENCE 10 DIFFERENT CLIMATE ZONES IN ONE DAY." - BEN HOFFMAN

This year will be pro triathlete Ben Hoffman's tenth time competing at the iconic event. He enjoys exploring the Big Island's many beaches and viewing its abundant marine life with his family.

"Nothing beats a swim in Kailua Bay, preferably early in the morning when you might catch a glimpse of dolphins," he says. "There are numerous beaches along Ali'i Drive and north as you go out the Queen Ka`ahumanu Highway. My favorites are Magic Sands and Hapuna, which is especially great for kids. I would also recommend booking a Manta Ray night dive to watch those majestic creatures in their element."

Hawaiian Tourism Authority (HTA) / Kawika Singson

Manta Point, Manta Heaven, and Manta Village are three of the best spots to snorkel with manta rays, because lights have been placed underwater to attract plankton.

For the thrill-seeking traveler, Hoffman suggests making the trek to Mauna Kea to watch the sunrise or hiking to the black sand beach below the Pololu Valley Overlook near Hawi. "For the more adventurous spirit, there's cliff jumping at 'the End of the World' near Keahou, or deep-sea fishing if you prefer to catch your next dinner!"

The Pololu Valley Overlook has spectacular views of lush green landscapes carved into the Kohala volcano. There's a short but steep hike to a black sand beach on the valley floor that's surrounded by 500 ft. high cliffs.

Only in Kona... can you take a walking tour of Hawaiian royal history.

Consider taking a walking tour of historic Kailua-Kona. You can learn about Hulihe'e Palace, the former summer home for Hawaiian royalty that was built in 1838. It's located on Ali'i Drive and houses artifacts from the era of King Kalākaua and Queen Kapi'olani.

Then, head across the street to Mokuaikaua Church, the first Christian church built in Hawaii, and Ahu'ena Heiau, the last residence of King Kamehameha I. The sacred temple sits north of Kailua Pier, which is a great place to watch the sunset and is the swim start for the Vinfast IRONMAN World Championship.

Kona is coffee country. The high elevation and rich volcanic soil on the slopes of the dormant Hualālai volcano provide the perfect environment for harvesting the Kona coffee bean. There are 600 coffee farms in the area and many offer guided tours where you can enjoy a fresh brew. But, for triathletes, the best place to drink coffee is at the floating coffee bar.

"I've been to the coffee boat during race week many times, and it's always an awesome experience," Hoffman says. "It's well-worth it to get a little Kona coffee and share the crystal clear, open water with everyone. Just head down to Dig Me Beach right by the pier, and swim out along the buoy line and straight to the boat."

Only in Kona... can you drink volcanic-grown coffee, on a floating bar, in the ocean.

Dunkle visits the coffee bar every day she's in Kona. "Hang on for a shot of strong coffee and drink while treading water with your fellow athletes. This is when you realize how international the race is. You hear languages from all over the world, and it hits you that this is none other than the IRONMAN World Championship!"

Only in Kona... can you enjoy Pacific Rim, Polynesian, and Asian fusion cuisine.

Located oceanfront at the Four Seasons, ULU Ocean Grille is the perfect spot for a celebratory race dinner. Try the Charred Sea Bass with lemongrass creamed corn, romesco, and yuzu beurre blanc. Another fine dining staple is Merriman's for the Mahi Mahi with pumpkin and chevre ravioli and macadamia nut romesco.

For the best poke on the island, Hoffman suggests Umeke's or Da Poke Shack. "You must try the local, fresh Hawaiian poke, but Kona Brewing is a great option for more traditional American fare," he says. "If you're lucky enough to book a dinner at the Holuakoa Café, you will not be disappointed. Finally, check out Jackie Rey's and Killer Tacos."

Joyce is also a big fan of poke and her first stop on the island was always Da Poke Shack on Ali'i Drive. "Other favorites are Jackie Rey's Ohana Grill and smoothies from Green Flash Coffee."

Hawaiian Tourism Authority (HTA) / Heather Goodman

One of Dunkle's favorite places to visit is Lava Java for Island Style Pancakes with bananas, coconut syrup, and macadamia nuts. "You can sit outside Lava Java, drinking coffee, and watch all the action on Ali`i Drive. Most days, there's over $500,000 of bikes in front of the restaurant!" she adds. Dunkle also enjoys Huggo's On The Rocks, a casual, toes-in-the-sand joint with live music and fun cocktails like the Big Bamboocha Mai Tai. Her pick there is the Sesame Crusted Tofu or Ahi Tuna. Right next door is Huggo's, featuring dinner options like Kailua Bay Cioppino with tomato fennel broth and Ginger Steamed Clams with sake and crispy long rice.

Head to Kona with your athletic ambitions first, but when you're done competing at this event that feels like a homecoming for so many triathletes, don't forget to take time to enjoy everything else only the Big Island can offer.

Hawaiian Tourism Authority (HTA) / Tor Johnson

"YOU ARE AN IRONMAN:"

Behind the Finish Line Call

The soon to retire race announcer shares the story of how his signature phrase came to be.

Over the summer, best-loved race announcer Mike Reily announced that he will soon retire from announcing IRONMAN finish lines the world over. Athletes and fans everywhere have come to love Reilly, even choosing their races based on where he'll be calling athletes across the finish line. It's hard to imagine an IRONMAN finish line without him, but as he bids us farewell, here's his own story of how his signature phrase came to be.

Don't you just love birthdays, anniversaries, significant memories, and special moments in time? Over the last few decades, besides my family, Kona moments have defined my life and who I am today.

When thinking about the IRONMAN World Championship in Hawai'i, images of so many special moments race through my mind like a sped-up movie. Starting in 1989 with the Iron War right up to bringing the final finisher home at midnight in 2019. Thus far, this movie has no end.

I'm asked often what I've seen change over the years—at this the marquee event and in the sport more broadly. There have been changes in technology, nutrition protocol, training regimens, ceremonies, coaching, charities, and more. I always answer this way: after the cannon goes off and 2500 souls begin their 140.6 mile/226 km journey through the dark landscape of a promised land, it's all the same. Nothing has changed with the race itself; you are expected to get yourself through a day of swim-bike-run of monumental proportions. Just as the 12 brave men did in 1978.

The IRONMAN World Championship, Madam Pele, and the Leeward trade winds of West Hawai`i can churn up even the strongest of athletes, but every year we all witness the other side of the island—its healing powers.

The island has helped heal the parents who have lost a child, the ones carrying disease that have been told their time is limited, and the survivors of the horrors of war. It has guided ones with mental illnesses to remain strong, the lost and homeless who never gave up on themselves, the accident victims with broken bodies, and the amputees who were told they couldn't.
